

St. Andrew's UNITED CHURCH

is hosting a Guest Speaker Series of Conversations

Each session will be followed by time for questions and refreshments.

Registration is required to respect everyone's time commitments.

Call 905-294-0351 to register.

Amanda McKee

Her most recent book is the story of a woman named Julia whose life is taken over with anxiety. Julia's journey of recovery from anxiety is hope for all for whom it is a struggle in life.

Anxiety - Tues September 24th, 2024, 7 p.m.

Rev. Judith Russo

Judith is the retired chaplain of the Toronto East Detention Centre and Adult Male Maximum Security Facility. From Judith you will learn what it is really like to do time in jail in Ontario, not like the movies!

Prison – Wed October 9th, 2024, 1:30 p.m.

Rev. Jeff Brown

Jeff currently serves as a spiritual care practitioner in the Mississauga Trillium Health Partners' hospitals and as a chaplain to the University of Toronto. With Jeff you will learn how the MAiD experience is seen from the perspectives of individuals receiving MAiD, their families, and the people providing it, and you will learn of the history, current status, and some ethical and moral concerns around dying.

MAiD – Wed January 29th, 2025, 7 p.m.

Adrian Foster

Adrian is the Mayor of Clarington, holding a seat on the Durham Regional Council, and he is also the Chair of the Canadian Association of Nuclear Host Communities which is a part of the Global Municipal Nuclear Partnership. From Adrian you will learn what is happening in Markham, in Ontario and around the world in the nuclear sector.

Nuclear – Tues February 11th, 2025, 7 p.m.
